BOAT RIDE

A boat ride through the canals is an absolute must! Would you go to Venice without taking a cruise in a gondola? Okay, maybe it's not quite the same thing. However, a canal-ride is the most enjoyable way to glimpse parts of the city you would never otherwise see from a vantage-point.

“SWAN LAKE”

The ballet is performed on the stage of the Alexandrinsky Theater in the very center of St. Petersburg. Based on the music of Peter Tchaikovsky and the choreography of Marius Petipas, the performance directed by Konstantine Tachkin is on every season since 1950. The ballet itself is world-famous. The music of the live orchestra is magnificent.

The best choice for every theater goer!
